THIRTY EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

TO THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

FROM MARCH 31st, 1902 to APRIL 1st, 1903.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN respectfully presents to the GENERAL ASSEMBLY its THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The year which has just closed has discovered some facts which are calculated to greatly encourage those interested in the Missions of the Freedmen. The increased popular attention to the condition of the negro in our land, the vigorous and serious public discussion of his needs, his capacities and his future must be productive of a lasting good. When a nation begins to study the needs of any portion of its population, especially when it begins to recognize its responsibility for the care and development of its ignorant and helpless classes, it may be expected that many minds, long indifferent, and indifferent because uninformed, will awake to a new interest and a realization of the claims of the task so long ignored. That a former President of the United States has found occasion for the public utterance of his deep interest in the welfare and progress of the negro, has gladly aroused his sense of obligation to assist in helping this race to an industrial and intellectual advance; that some of our truest statesmen and intellectual leaders disclose the problem of the negro in our country to be one of the most important which we have to solve; that our greatest men today, both North and South, view with serious minds and kindly hearts the methods and plans suggested for the elevation of his race should be mightily suggestive to the Church. It is good for every worker in this great field to see the instincts of patriotism and the pressure of a lower philanthropy moving society to follow the path which the Church of Jesus Christ has quickly chosen. We can but feel that out of this discussion and agitation of sentiment there shall arise a more general appreciation of the magnitude of our task and the importance of our work, and that there shall be created a universal feeling that the Mission to the Freedmen is one of the greatest and noblest schemes to which the Church has ever set itself. We may certainly argue that if on the lower plans of citizenship, of patriotism and of such interest men debate so wisely and strenuously for the care and guidance of his race, the Christian Church with higher motives is more than justified in its attempt to elevate this people, for whose condition we are in a degree responsible. And if the popular view and the general discussion narrows itself to the emphasis on industrial education we shall not complain, for on the one hand experience will soon teach the nation that this people must be given something more than mechanical skill, and on the other the Church will always insist that, as in the education of its own sons and daughters, religion is necessary, and man shall not and cannot live by bread alone but by every word which proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Your Board then regards it as a most encouraging sign that earnest minds everwhere are giving their attention to this question. We most sincerely hope that it shall be suggestive to every pastor and elder, and that in every Church under your care the methods and needs of this work may be heartily presented and that every member of our churches may be given an opportunity to participate in this elevation and Christianizing of this people, who, through no fault of theirs, are in our midst for good or ill. Following the natural divisions of the work of your Board—the financial, educational and evangelistic—we take up the FINANCIAL.

We regret that we cannot report increased receipts over last year. Nothing should have given us greater gratification than to have been able to follow the recommendation of the last General Assembly and enlarge our work fifty per cent. over last year. If the churches generally had possessed the knowledge and sympathy and consecration which the General Assembly exhibited, we should have been enabled to have lengthened our cords and to have met the earnest appeals for workers with a glad response. Only the utmost care and vigilant oversight, and foresight and economy have enabled your Board to close the year free from debt. Those familiar with such work will readily understand that new workers cannot be commissioned or schools opened or missions started unless there is some ground for believing that the resources and receipts should be sufficient. The Board recognizes its duty to trust the churches, but as it is the servant of the Church it must wait the marked and definite evidence that the Church wishes, and will support its enlargement of work and expenditure.

That we close the year without debt and with a small balance, though the receipts were less than those of last year and the expenditure slightly greater, it may be added that the economy exercised has not lessened the work or diminished the number of workers, though it has not been effected without much self-denial on the part of missionaries and teachers.

The efforts begun through our Woman's Department three years ago to complete the unfinished wing of Ingleside Seminary at Burkeville, Va., and the additional buildings at Brainerd Institute, Chester, S. C., have been so far successful that the desired funds have been raised, and unless unexpected obstacles are met, or building estimates disappoint, the improvements will be completed and our Women's Society and Mrs. F. D. Palmer, so long the General Secretary, will be privileged to rejoice in this happy success.

In our report last year it was stated that the increased receipts came from legacies and individuals. This year there was a decrease in the amount received from legacies of over $8,300 and from individuals and miscellaneous sources of $3,000. It must be apparent that your Board cannot be expected to rely upon legacies as a true source of income and it would be well if the generous offerings of the churches should permit us to use these legacies for special work and the meeting of unexpected opportunities. The receipts from the churches and the Woman's Department show a gratifying increase and the contributions of the latter especially deserve acknowledgement as enabling the Board to meet its entire obligations. A study of our receipts may well be made by every pastor and session, and the contrast between the direct collections made by the churches and the contributions obtained through the Woman's Department ought to quicken and stimulate.

The following is a tabulated statement:

RECEIVED.

	1899–0.	1900–1.	1901–2.	1902–3.
Churches	$60,844 18	$61,947 21	$61,314 78	$64,395 26
Y. P. Societies	706 15	655 79	1,071 07	894 56
Sunday Schools	4,068 54	3,694 55	4,246 94	4,244 29
Woman's Board	55,429 49	60,353 40	65,805 91	71,442 16
Legacies	14,028 26	15,072 71	27,049 88	18,701 58
Miscellaneous	19,956 46	21,541 38	26,316 07	23,276 91

The number of churches that helped us this year in any one way was 4,995, being a gain of 244 as compared with last year.

The number of churches that helped us by congregational collections was 4,125, being an increase of 128.

May we not ask that in the future the work of your Board shall be presented to every Church and every member given an opportunity to be co-laborers in this field?

EDUCATIONAL.

The policy of our schools is not only to maintain Christian but Presbyterian instruction. In our boarding-schools 1,954 young men and women have not only received instruction in the ordinary branches of education, but have enjoyed the training of a Christian home and the influence and association of earnest, refined and educated instructors. The results of such daily contact and training are incalculable, and must affect the communities and churches to which these pupils return.

Your Board continues, as it is enabled, to enlarge its industrial training, which it has always planned, and trades and agriculture are not only taught, but the work is used to meet the support of the scholars and supply the needs of the schools. The results of farm training and culture have been especially gratifying and helpful. The instruction in sewing and housework also is everywhere promoted, and the pupils show much benefit. Last year mention was made of the added facilities and grounds of Harbison College, and we are again permitted to make mention of the kindness of its friends. Mr. S. P. Harbison, so generous in the past, has given it a farm of two hundred acres, and buildings at a cost of $5,000, which are already under cultivation by its energetic principal and scholars.

We cannot in this report make detailed mention of the needs of the various institutions under our care. Manned by devoted and intelligent Christian teachers who rightly desire to make full proof of their ministry, and who see many opportunities for enlarged usefulness at comparatively slight expense, these schools offer great openings to Christian generosity. The expenditures of the Board are so parallel to its receipts that it cannot do what it sees such splendid occasion to provide for, larger work; but we shall be more than glad to suggest to any who possess a few hundreds or thousands of dollars for which they desire a true usefulness, such places and methods of investment for Christ as shall be profoundly gratifying in spiritual and physical results. There are institutions under the care of your Board which are managed with a remarkable economy and yet a great satisfaction of result which are unheralded, and to which the gift of a few thousands of dollars should double the resources and results.

EVANGELISTIC.

The number of ministers under our care is 211, having the pastoral care of 338 churches Our work consists not only in the appointment and payment of these ministers but in the wise grouping of churches to obtain the best results, the care and oversight which extends to monthly reports and such transfers or changes as the peculiarities of the field suggest. In much of this the Board obtains assistance from the Presbyteries, and the harmony and aid are pleasing evidences of the attractions which the Presbyterian polity has for the best minds of this race, and its adaptability and usefulness for their religious development. That the year has been one of progress and encouragement will be seen by the number of additions on profession, 1,846, and the total membership, 20,764—a number which, however, small as compared with the eight millions of population, is significant of great leavening and elevating power. Yet, without underrating what other churches are doing among this people, it must be apparent that our church has before it a large and noble field, and one upon which it has not yet learned to heartily concentrate its proper resources or fully meet its splendid responsibility.

Our work carries with it also the assistance of these congregations to procure suitable houses of worship. In these days a religious home of some fitness and decency is a necessity to attract sinners and edify saints, and the Board, while stimulating the people and inculcating prudence and economy finds it necessary to help such enterprise under proper conditions. It is not an infrequent experience with the Board to be asked by some of their devoted missionaries to advance a portion of their salaries to assist in such building, and to know that it is secured in its payment by the utmost self-sacrifice and often hardship gladly endured. In fact the Board has sometimes to caution their missionaries lest in the worthy and eager wish for a sanctuary the success of the future may be too dearly gained.

Attention should also be given to the effort these churches are making toward self-support. There are many in our land who amid scenes of prosperity and high wages have no conception of the limited resources of this people, the low rate of wages and the poverty which follows a crop failure. Yet it is significant of their devotion that during the year they have contributed $40,634 to their own church support, while raising $2,418 for the benevolent Boards of the church. Many of these people have also pinched and denied themselves to procure an education for their children, and while the report is not complete we learn that $54,096 have been given by the patrons of our schools.

It will thus be seen that "the care of all the churches" by the Board is complicated and diverse. And yet the unity of the work is easily recognized. How shall we obtain a well trained ministry for these churches? How shall we find intelligent men for the eldership and wise oversight of these churches? How shall we procure men and women of intelligence and piety for these Sabbath schools? How shall we create true fathers and mothers amid this long debased people except by our Christian schools and seminaries fostered and guarded by your Board? We believe in and are only too glad to enlarge and develop industrial training, but the Christian church has a grander ideal than the political economist, and it has wisely decided to give these people as high an education as they can receive, knowing that the character of the leaders determine the tendencies of the multitude.

The following tabulated statement and list presents a summary of the work and the institutions under our care:

The Woman's Department of our Board, which is the same as the Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board, has under the management of Mrs. Flora D. Palmer as General Secretary and Mrs. V. P. Boggs as Corresponding Secretary, closed another year of earnest effort rewarded by most satisfactory results.

It was with great regret, and only with a hearty expression of our appreciation of her devotion and usefulness and sympathy in her impaired health that the Board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Palmer. She had accomplished so much, and by her knowledge of the field, her tact and energy and tireless effort, had been so instrumental in widening the interest in our work that it was our hope for a time that a long rest might permit her to resume her work. Acquiescing in her opinion, the Board renews its expression of its regard and sympathy and prayers for her recovery. Mrs. V. P. Boggs has been appointed Acting General Secretary. The annual report presented by her is printed as an appendix to this report.

We are privileged to again chronicle an advance in receipts through the Woman's Board of New York of almost six thousand dollars over even the increase of last year, bringing the total amount to the sum of $71,442.16. While it must be remembered that a considerable proportion of this is for special purposes such as the buildings at Ingleside and Brainerd, and therefore is not available for the direct enlargement of our evangelistic or school work, it is in itself a development of the work, and also significant of a larger interest and increasingly generous spirit. Realizing the danger that too great an attention to contributions to special purposes may draw away some gifts from the general fund so absolutely necessary, the Woman's Department seeks to guard against this and stimulate the spirit of unrestricted giving.

We sincerely repeat the language used in our report of last year that "Our obligations to the Woman's Board of New York constantly increases. As the services they render in receiving and transmitting funds to us from month to month is without remuneration, so, also, it has been without complaint. The workers in the Woman's Board are true friends of our work, and we hereby acknowledge with sincere gratitude the many evidences we have received from time to time of the existence of their kindly feelings toward us and toward what we are trying to do."

Miss Mary E. Holmes, Ph. D., of Rockford, Ill., completes her seventh year as Secretary of the Northwest, and her annual report is most interesting in its exhibition of an unabated zeal and unwearied effort in behalf of this work so long dear to her mind and heart. Statistics can never measure nor reveal what she has this year accomplished, but some idea of the devotion shown and energy expended may be obtained when we note that she has attended and made addresses at 73 meetings this year, requiring 8,948 miles of travel, 3,922 letters have been written, 3,517 postals and mimeograph letters sent in connection with her work. Nor should her work and devotion at Mary Holmes Seminary during the prevalence of smallpox be overlooked, for no small part of the subsequent recovery of the school from the moral as well as the physical danger and results of such a plague are due to her devotion, energy and unremitting care. It is not only in the past that it was proper to ask: "Pray for these women who labored with us in the Gospel."

Rev. John J. Beacom, D. D., for a time Treasurer of the Board, and nominally retaining the title during a protracted illness, has gone to his heavenly reward. The Corresponding Secretary, who has discharged the duties of the Treasurer, has been appointed Treasurer also (without additional compensation.)

The Board hereby returns its sincere thanks to the many individuals who have by their gifts shown their interest and confidence in the work. Few can realize how much those gifts accomplish or how much they cheer the Board in its efforts to rouse the interest of the church, and enable Christians to see how many and great are the opportunities for blessed returns. Is it too much to hope that in these days of general prosperity and increased wealth, more of the members of our churches shall listen to our appeals, and count it a privilege to use some of this prosperity in lifting and saving these darkened souls? Grateful to Him who has given His blessing to this year of constant toil, watchfulness and at times of anxiety for the interests at stake, we turn to the future in the confident hope that our great church, whose foremost principal is loyalty to Jesus Christ, and whose highest ideal has been to seek and save the ignorant and neglected, shall take this great work into its greater sympathy, exercise upon it a larger generosity, and, indifferent to all social or political problems or difficulties, give these hearts the opportunity to know Him whom to know is life eternal.

The term of service of the following members expires with this Assembly: Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D. D., Rev. H. T. McClelland, D. D., Rev. W. S. Fulton, D. D., Rev. Samuel J. Glass, D. D., Vincent Miller, Esq. We ask that they be re-elected.

H. T. McCLELLAND, President. S. J. FISHER, Recording Secretary.

P. S.—This report, owing to the temporary illness of the Corresponding Secretary, Rev. E. P. Cowan, D. D., has been prepared by the Recording Secretary.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

At Los Angeles, Cal., May, 1903.

Rev. Charles P. Cheeseman, D. D., was selected by the Commissioners, who formed the Standing Committee on Freedmen, as its Chairman, and, among other things, included in his report the following:

"The Record and Report of the Board of Missions for Freedmen bear witness to the efficiency and wisdom of its officers in the management of its affairs. For thirty-eight years the Assembly has listened, with ever deepening interest, to the story of missionary effort in behalf of our colored citizens of our great patriotic Southland.

"Whatever may be the opinion of men concerning the rights and privileges of the colored race, it is everywhere recognized that this nation is confronted by problems, the solution of which requires the combined wisdom of Church and State. It is admitted by all, denied by none, that the welfare, integrity and perpetuity of our nation are largely dependent upon the solution of this problem.

"It is most gratifying to note the awakening interest in all departments of national life concerning the welfare of the colored race. Statesmen and lawmakers are coming to see the necessity of doing something more than spread upon the statute books enactments for the government of the negroes. This is one of the things over which we rejoice, and may God speed the day when every patriot shall feel the full measure of his responsibility in saving the nation by saving the individual.

"In conclusion, we express the hope that the Church will bestir herself to the mighty task before her. Last year the Assembly, amid clapping hands, resolved to add fifty per cent. to the amount recommended in the Committee's Report. Did the Church keep this pledge? She did not even meet the original request of her Committee. We are confident, however, that the men and women of our churches will come up to the help of the Lord if they are taught and urged as to their full duty."

RESOLUTIONS.

1. We express our confidence in and esteem for our honored Secretary and his co-workers in the management of the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

2. We recommend that Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D. D., Rev. H. T. McClelland, D. D., Rev. W. S. Fulton, D. D., Rev. Samuel J. Glass, D. D., and Mr. Vincent Miller be re-elected members of the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

3. We record our appreciation of the faithful, generous and loyal support of the noble women who have rendered timely and invaluable service through the Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board, and also, that we express our heartfelt thanks to the Young Peoples Societies and the Sabbath Schools for their liberal gifts.

4. We beseech pastors and sessions to carefully consider the claims of the needy millions in the interest of whom this Board is laboring, and, in order that men for whom Christ died may hear the joyful news, we recommend that not less than $300,000 be given to this cause this year.

Respectfully submitted,

NINETEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT
TO THE
BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN.

GENTLEMEN:

In presenting to you the Nineteenth Annual Report of the Woman's Department we would gratefully acknowledge "the good hand of our God" in the work of the year just closed, as shown by increasing interest and increased contributions.

Our receipts this year from the Treasurer of the Woman's Board have been $71,442.16, which is an advance over the previous year of $5,636.25.

Of this amount Women's Societies contributed $49,574.60, Young People $12,590.57, Sabbath Schools $4,063.31, Miscellaneous $5,213.68.

In addition to the total amount received through the Woman's Board $254.77 came from societies direct to the Board, making a total of $71,696.93.

Of this amount $1,000 was a legacy from the estate of Harriet W. Rolph, Huntingdon, N. Y.; $100 from that of Mrs. Cordelia Barr, Kittanning Presbytery, and a gift of $1,000 from Mrs. E. H. Billingsley, the latter to be applied to a school building as a memorial to her husband, Rev. E. H. Billingsley, a former missionary under our Board at Statesville, N. C.

Of the total amount—$71,442.16—$33,000 was received between March 23d and April 15th of the present year. No little anxiety was felt therefore at headquarters as the year drew swiftly to a close whether we would be able to report an advance in the receipts or a falling off.

The money contributed through the Woman's Board has been applied to the educational work of the Freedmen's Board as follows: Teacher's salaries, $19,493.45; Scholarships, $18,719.35; General Work and Buildings, $16,938.64; General Fund for Educational Work, $16,288.22.

RECEIPTS FROM SYNODS.

Twenty-nine Synods have contributed to the work of our Department this year, all making an advance over the previous year. Several of the smaller Synods show an advance of more than a hundred per cent.

There has been an increase also in the number of Societies contributing, 3,041 reporting gifts to Freedmen this year, while there were 2,669 on the list last year, making a gain of 372.

We most gratefully acknowledge, not only the steady support of the schools by societies, but also their generous response to appeals for special objects which have been presented to them.

In connection with the last named we are glad to report all of the funds, necessary for the completion of the Brainerd buildings, in the treasury.

Both the school building and the girls dormitory are in course of erection and we confidently hope for their completion before the opening of the school year.

The young people especially are to be commended for their three years of persevering, patient effort to give to the colored young people of the South such an evidence of their interest and desire for their uplift as is represented in this institute building at Chester, S. C., to be known as "The Young People's Building." The secretaries are also entitled to our sincere thanks for the faithfulness with which they have presented and urged this special work, as also for the loyalty insisted upon to regular pledges along all lines of mission work.

Our faithful secretary of the northwest, Miss Mary E. Holmes, sends a glowing account of the work in that section. The labor and effort involved, to insure the results, which with Divine guidance she has been able to secure have been forgotten in the joy of the service it was her privilege to render. Miss Holmes has "done her best" to extend knowledge and increase gifts for Freedmen work, to stimulate interest that will not allow salaries or scholarships in the various schools, pledged in the northwest, to lapse and to secure as fully as possible the synodical specials assigned by the Freedmen's Department.

The growth of general interest in the northwest is decided, as proved by sympathy, gifts and prayers; by applications almost daily for information concerning the work and its needs, and by the ever increasing circulation of the "Freedmen's Bulletin." This little paper issued at her own expense is full of the latest information from the field, given in a bright and interesting manner. It reaches every Presbyterian missionary society in the northwest as well as many in every section. We acknowledge with appreciation and gratitude the valuable service rendered by Miss Holmes—without remuneration.

Presbyterial secretaries have been most faithful in circulating the literature relating to our work. Thousands of leaflets have been sent out through them, as well as in answer to requests coming direct to the office. A small package of literature, accompanied by a letter containing information not found in the leaflets has been the means of awakening and stimulating interest in many a society. We would emphasize the importance of the women of our Church acquainting themselves with the work we are endeavoring to carry on that they may intelligently cooperate with our plans.

The box work as conducted by Societies is a most important feature in our work. Indeed its value cannot be over-estimated. The contents of these boxes and barrels sent to the field each year enable children to attend school and in some cases the entire family to attend church and Sabbath school, the sick and aged are comforted and cheered, and our ministers are encouraged in their work, in being enabled from the supplies sent them to respond to the many appeals from the destitute in their community for help.

During the past year, as in other years, a number of our Presbyterial, as also many individual Societies, have sent substantial aid to our boarding schools in the line of household supplies and furnishings. If the money expended for these had passed through the treasury quite a sum would have been added to the credit of the Societies contributing such aid, but as money credit can only be given for that which passes through the treasurer's hands this valuable help can only be credited as box work and mentioned in the Annual Report. The estimated value of boxes and barrels sent to the field, as reported to us from twelve Synods is $15,902, Pennsylvania leading with a valuation of $8,033.33. No doubt many boxes have been sent which have not been reported.

Much reading matter has also been sent to the field, including many valuable books. This help was much appreciated by both the ministers and teachers and eagerly sought after by students and others. A standing need is bibles and hymnals. Many of the former are sent in boxes with clothing, etc., and we have been able to some extent to respond to special appeals for these, by the renewal of the fund from time to time by the "Elect Lady," who three years ago brought to us her most precious jewel—a valuable diamond ring—to be converted into bibles that the need of some of those who are perishing for the Bread of Life might be supplied.

Turning to the field we find our work in a most hopeful condition. Schools are crowded to overflowing; pupils are realizing as never before what education means and that it cannot be secured without hard work. There have been many hopeful conversions among the students, a large number having been added to the Presbyterian church, while many have gone to other denominations. In this evidence of the blessing of the Lord upon our schools we recognize the faithful and consecrated efforts of our devoted teachers. They have labored not only for the intellectual and physical development of the children and youth who have come under their care, but for their spiritual and moral uplift also. They have labored for souls.

That the Freedmen are developing a spirit of self-dependence is shown by a steady advance in gifts to the cause from year to year. Their contributions for the support of the work this past year amounted to $94,465.32, being an advance of $8,253 over last year, $54,101.25 of this coming from the schools.

The women of the churches under our Board have given generously according to their ability, not only to the work of our Department but to Home and Foreign Missions also, and the number of organizations for mission work are increasing.

Truly we who have been so highly favored should "help those women" of the negro race who "are laboring with us" to advance the Kingdom of our Lord.

Through the December magazines Societies were informed of the enforced retirement—for a season—on account of impaired health of the beloved and efficient Secretary of our Department, Mrs. Flora D. Palmer. It was the earnest hope at that time that she would be fully restored and able to resume the duties of her position in the early fall.

For nearly four years it has been her earnest endeavor, in season and out of season, to so present the cause of the Freedmen to Societies in such a way that to use her own words "the mountains of indifference and prejudice might be removed, and to lovingly remind the forgetful ones in the ranks of God's children of the wide open door of opportunity to save the perishing thousands of negroes in the Southland." That she has not counted even her own life dear in order to the accomplishment of this purpose all who know of the faithful and arduous service she has rendered will admit. The first eight months of the year just closed were months of unprecedented traveling, speaking and correspondence on her part in behalf of the new year's work. Synodical meetings, meetings of Synods, Presbyterial meetings, local societies, young people's meetings, churches and Sunday schools were attended to present the cause in ten different states, when exhausted strength suddenly made it a necessity to lay down the burden. So strong was Mrs. Palmer's conviction at that time that the limit of her strength had been reached and she would be compelled to lay aside all active work for some time to come, that she tendered her resignation to the Board, but the members of the Board being loath to sever the official connection with Mrs. Palmer, which had proved so advantageous to the work, and with the hope that her services might be again available in the near future, persuaded her to agree to a long and definite period of rest and recuperation, and at her own suggestion fixing upon September next as the time when they could hope for the resumption of the duties and the management which she was compelled to lay down with the universal regret of her friends. That this rest is not bringing the hoped for restoration is evident from a letter of March 31st to the Board, enclosing her resignation in which she states that her "devotion to the cause will impel her to work for it always, as a part of the work of our Church, but that the hopeless outlook at present for sufficient vigor and strength for the activities of the office to be resumed at the set time must be the reason for this final decision for dissolving the bonds between us." It was with profound regret that the Board learned of Mrs. Palmer's decision to withdraw from the work. They appreciate how great the loss to themselves and the cause, but felt compelled to accept her resignation that she might have complete relief and freedom from anxiety and responsibility. It is the earnest prayer of the Board, in which all of Mrs. Palmer's friends will heartily join, that it may yet please God to restore her again to her wanted health and vigor.

The Ladies Committee of our Department, twenty in number from five different Presbyteries, have met from month to month, as in previous years, to pray for God's blessing upon the work and to consider and promote its interest in every possible way.

Much of the success which we are able to report is due to the wise counsel and cordial co-operation of these faithful women, and many special cases of need are met by this Committee, for which no credit is given on our books.

Again, as in previous years, we most gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to the Woman's Board for the Freedmen's number of the Home Mission Monthly, published without cost to our Department and which so ably presents the claims of the Freedmen to the women of the Church. We would also express our appreciation of the Prayer Calendar prepared by a committee from the Woman's Board in which all of our schools and teachers receiving support through the Board are mentioned by name, each having a day on which special prayer is offered for a blessing upon the work and worker. May we not hope that in the near future every school and teacher under our Board may be added to this list, that all may have the benefit of special intercession.

We are indebted for many other favors to the Woman's Board for all of which we return most grateful thanks. We would also make mention of the uniform kindness and courtesy shown the secretaries of our Department by the members of the Freedmen's Board, which deserve and have our highest appreciation.

The record of the year is closed. We will not pass that way again. We enter upon the new year with hope and courage. "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." We can safely trust the future of this cause in His hands, feeling assured that not one word of all His promises will fail.

Respectfully submitted.

MRS. V. P. BOGGS,
Acting General Secretary.
